Unveiling the Bloom Table Topper Collection

The Bargello Blooms Table Topper collection features 12 exquisite designs, each inspired by nature's vibrant blooms. From the delicate petals of the primrose to the vibrant hues of the iris, these patterns will bring the beauty of the outdoors into your home.

Each table topper is designed to be stitched on a bean bag shape, creating a unique and functional decorative accent. Whether you choose to display them as stunning centerpieces on your dining table or coffee table, or create a cozy arrangement on your bed or sofa, these toppers will add a touch of elegance and charm to any space.

The Art of Bargello Needlepoint

Bargello needlepoint is a time-honored craft that originated in Italy during the 13th century. The technique involves stitching vertical rows of stitches in varying colors, creating a pattern that resembles woven fabric. The intricate geometric designs and vibrant hues have made bargello a beloved form of needlework for centuries.

In Bargello Blooms, Margie O'Neill introduces you to the fundamental stitches and techniques of bargello. You'll learn how to create the classic Florentine stitch, as well as variations like the half stitch and the double stitch. With each stitch, you'll add depth and dimension to your designs, creating works of art that will be treasured for generations to come.

Embark on a Creative Odyssey

Bargello Blooms Table Topper Bean Bag Designs is more than just a book; it's an invitation to unlock your creativity and embark on a journey of self-expression. As you stitch each design, you'll experience the calming and meditative effects of needlework. The rhythmic motion of the needle and thread will soothe your mind and allow your imagination to flow freely.

With Bargello Blooms as your guide, you'll create stunning decorative accents that will bring joy and beauty to your home. Each finished piece will be a testament to your artistic talents and the transformative power of needlepoint.
