Bruiser was born with a deformed face. His eyes were crossed, his nose was crooked, and his ears were misshapen. He was not a pretty cat, but he was a very special cat.

Bruiser's deformities made it difficult for him to find a home. He was rejected by several shelters and rescue organizations. But one day, he was found by a kind-hearted woman named Carla. Carla saw past Bruiser's deformities and saw the loving cat that he was.

Carla took Bruiser home and gave him a loving home. Bruiser quickly became a part of the family. He loved to play with Carla's other cats and dogs. He also loved to cuddle with Carla and her husband.
