

Guiding Principles Of The Salvation Army Social Services Ministries: A Path to Transformation

The Salvation Army, an esteemed global organization, has been a beacon of hope to the marginalized and vulnerable for over a century. Its Social Services Ministries, imbued with an unwavering dedication to compassionate service, have played a pivotal role in transforming countless lives.

A Foundation of Guiding Principles

The Social Services Ministries of The Salvation Army are anchored in a set of guiding principles that serve as a compass for our work. These principles, etched into the fabric of our organization, shape our every interaction and inform our unwavering commitment to alleviating suffering and fostering human dignity.

- Salvationism: A profound belief in Jesus Christ as our Savior, guiding our mission of holistic transformation.
- Holistic Approach: Addressing the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of individuals and communities.
- Compassion: Treating all we serve with dignity, empathy, and unconditional love.
- Excellence: Striving for the highest standards of service, ensuring that our programs and resources are delivered with integrity and effectiveness.
- Sustainability: Empowering individuals and communities to achieve self-sufficiency and break the cycle of poverty.

Empowering Individuals and Communities

Guided by these principles, The Salvation Army Social Services Ministries provide a comprehensive array of programs and services tailored to meet the diverse needs of those we serve. Our work encompasses:

- Housing and shelter for the homeless
- Food pantries and nutrition assistance
- Counseling and support for families and individuals
- Addiction recovery and rehabilitation
- Educational and job training programs
- Disaster relief and emergency assistance

Through these programs, we strive to empower individuals and communities to overcome challenges, break the chains of poverty, and build brighter futures. Our compassionate staff, comprised of trained professionals and dedicated volunteers, provides unwavering support every step of the way.

Sharing the Guiding Principles
