The story follows the life of Jack, a young man struggling with the loss of his mother. As he navigates the challenges of grief and loneliness, he finds solace in the unexpected friendship of Maggie, an elderly woman who lives in his building.

Through their conversations and shared experiences, Jack and Maggie learn from each other and find strength and healing in their unlikely bond. As the seasons change and the jacket weather of Jack's youth becomes a metaphor for the changes in his life, he discovers the importance of resilience, the power of human connection, and the healing that can come from unexpected places.
