The book begins with the story of Lucky, a golden retriever who was rescued from a shelter. Lucky was a shy and timid dog, but he quickly showed his potential as a search and rescue dog. With the help of his handler, Ron Schwab, Lucky became a certified search and rescue dog, and the pair went on to save many lives.

The book is full of heartwarming stories of Lucky and Ron's work together. They have saved people from burning buildings, rescued people from collapsed buildings, and found lost people in the wilderness. Lucky's skills as a search and rescue dog are matched only by his compassion and love for people.

Old Dogs Lucky Five is a must-read for anyone who loves dogs, or who is interested in the work of search and rescue dogs. The book is a heartwarming and inspiring story of the special bond between a dog and his handler, and it is a reminder of the amazing things that dogs can do.
